

Non Fiction Book Summary Rubric

	Exemplary	Proficient	Below Average	Unacceptable
Heading (Title, Author, Subject)	All 3 items are written in the heading of the summary.	Only 2 of the 3 items are written in the heading of the summary	Only 1 of the 3 items are written in the heading of the summary	None of the 3 items are written in the heading of the summary
Summary Paragraph	There is paragraph summary (6-9 sentences in length.) explaining the purpose of the book's points with details.	There is paragraph summary (4-6 sentences in length.) explaining the purpose of the book with details.	There is minimal paragraph (3 sentences in length) explaining the purpose of the book with minimal detail.	There is NO paragraph summary present! There is no detail when explaining the purpose of the book.
Integration Of Facts	There are at several facts that you integrated in your summary to support your book's main idea	There are at least 3 facts that you integrated in your summary to support your book's main idea	There are less than 3 facts; integration of facts is poor. Some facts are trivial and do not help support your book's main idea.	There are less than 3 facts, if any; they are listed with no integration. Facts are trivial and do not support book's main idea
Mechanics	The summary is succinct, fluidly written, with no spelling or grammatical errors. Your facts are properly cited.	The summary is succinct, fluidly written, with few spelling or grammatical errors. Your facts are properly cited.	The summary is not concise, nor does it flow. Spelling or grammatical errors are numerous and distracting; Your facts are not properly cited.	The summary is incoherent to the reader. Spelling or grammatical errors makes comprehension impossible; No effort to cite your facts are properly